

CLASSIC CITY TOUR

PANORAMIC VIEW-MONUMENTS-CITY-AVENUES-STRAIT OF MAGELLAN- MUSEUM

Discover the charm of this far city founded on the coast of the Strait of Magellan by pioneers who left a valuable and cultural heritage with traditions that still remain these days. Most of its descendants came from Croatia, Spain, Italy, Germany, England and Chiloé Island (Chile). Nowadays, Punta Arenas has a population of 125,000 inhabitants approximately.

Our tour will begin at Mirador hill which is a place where we can get a panoramic view of Punta Arenas and the Strait of Magellan. From the top of it, we can also look around different architectural styles that surround the city.

Later on, we will visit the historical city centre including monuments such as Muñoz Gamero main square.

Then, we will have the chance to visit Maggiorino Borgatello museum which is a place with a great cultural heritage. This museum displays a varied collection of flora and fauna which can be found in Magallanes region as well as craftworks that belonged to Yaganes, Onas, and Alacalufes.

This tour will have as a last stop Muñoz Gamero main square.
