

HOT AIR BALLOON FLIGHT

The adventure begins with a brief transfer from your Hotel in San Pedro de Atacama to the departure place"

Now, it's the moment for tea and coffee, freshly baked cakes and fresh fruit. After this light breakfast, while the passengers observe the crew make all the preparations for the flight; the pilot makes a safety talk and explain how the hot air balloon works. When everything is ready, the passengers climb above the basket and the flight begins. The globe is meekly moved by the desert winds, allowing the passengers to observe in tranquility the "Atacameños" landscapes.

Thanks to his skill and long experience, the pilot drives the hot air balloon to a soft landing; after the arrive, a glass of sparkling wine is served to provide a successful experience.
