

GLACIER HIKE

EL MORADO NATIONAL PARK / GLACIER SAN FRANCISCO
/ BAÑOS MORALES

Recommended for adventurous people! A spectacular trip to “El Morado” Natural Monument National Park, located 93 km from Santiago. The starting point of the trek is in Baños Morales a mountain village at 1,900 m above sea level. The trail leads to the beautiful San Francisco Glacier (2,500 meters) and Morales Glacier Pond. During the hike we will have a refreshing stop at “Aguas de Panimávida”, iron-rich carbonated water that springs out from the earth.

Difficulty: Medium; Recommended for people in good physical shape.

Not recommended for asthmatics, cardiopathies, overweight people or people with recent surgeries. The first hour of the hike is steep and then it becomes flat. Altitude increase of 600 meters. Tour subject to change due to weather conditions rain or snow.

Includes: Transportation, bilingual guide, insurance, ticket, box lunch and water
