

ISLA NEGRA & ESTANCIA EL CUADRO

CASABLANCA VALLEY

We will start the tour at the house-museum in Isla Negra, poet Pablo Neruda's favorite one, whose environment has been inspired by its beautiful verses. The path through the house will tell us about Neruda's life and personality and then, we will visit the gardens where remain Don Pablo and Matilde Urrutia graves, his last wife (ticket to the museum included). During the transfer we will have the time to enjoy lunch (not included). Then, we will go to Casablanca Valley where we will have the time to enjoy lunch in La Estancia El Cuadro (unlimited wine consumption included). In the afternoon, we will go back to the hotel in Santiago.
