

LA PARVA SKI DAY

BEGINNER

Set Deep in the Andes Mountains, at 2.750 meters high and less than an hour of Santiago, is where La Parva is found. A unique, exclusive and very similar to a snow village, winter resort. Every year hundred of tourists choose this place because of it's perfectly smooth rink. We receive from beginners to world-class competitors. La Parva is chosen as a training center by international teams such as United States, France, Slovakia, between others; thanks to it's alpine skiing pistes approved by the FIS.

We start from the hotel early in the morning. Our first stop is at a store where we can rent ski clothing in order to enjoy all the activities. Then we will continue our path to La Parva for about an hour and a half.

Once we get there we can use our ticket which has access to Golondrina, Osito, Manzanito and Paloma cablecars.

INCLUSIONS: Hotel pick up and drop off / beginner ski ticket / rental of skiing or snowboard equipment / 2 hours of ski lessons.

Santiago and Surroundings

